Carmel Housing Site Is Disapproved

The selectmen have unanimously rejected Carmel Woods as a site for new 80-unit senior citizens housing construction.

The Andover Housing Authority has requested the board for assistance in acquiring the land from the Conservation Commission for such development.

According to AHA Chairman Thomas P. Eldred, state authorities have approved the site and with town ownership, acquisition costs would be eliminated.

The Conservation Commission, however, has refused permission for use of the ten acres of the land for development.

Town Counsel Fredric S. O'Brien has ruled that combined town meeting action, plus the state legislature approval is required for turning over the land from the conservation commission. A two-thirds vote of approval by town meeting, plus the sanction of the legislature would be required before the housing authority or anyone could gain access, if the conservationists fail to relinquish control.

Monday night, several residents

Stations Out Due To Vandalism

The Andover Red Cross wishes to make public announcement that due to continual vandalism, the life preserver stations at the Stevens Street bridge and Ballardvale center will be removed. The board of directors has taken this action after consultation with the Andover police and the town manager.

To Study Industrial Site Access Road

A committee will be appointed to study the feasibility of providing an access road to the Lowell Junction Industrial area, according to a vote of the selectmen this week.

Town Manager J. Maynard Austin advised the board that the industrial development commission has recommended action in this regard in view of the expansion of the industrial park area and the possibility of land being unavailable at a later date.

Austin felt that planning and moving in the direction of considering the access road at this time seems warranted.

He explained that the Gillette company was the first to build in the area, and other firms have located in the park within the past few years.

Traffic problems have resulted and are sure to increase with further development, he said.

The industrial committee anticipates the possibility of 3,000 employees in the park area in future years. There are at present 600 employees at Gillette and an additional 200 expected with the completion of a new building for the General Foam Co., now located in Lawrence.

Additional development would

Industrial Property Transferred

Paul W. Cronin, former state representative, president of CRG, Inc., has taken over the former J. P. Stevens warehouse properties off Railroad street, across from the former railroad depot.

Cronin, who has moved his office to the location, said he plans to rent the properties and is discussing the property with prospective tenants at the present time.

The warehouse property has over 100,000 square feet of floor space available.

Cronin is president and treasurer of the corporation which acquired ownership from the Stevens firm.

He said that the acquisition was something he had planned for some time and completion of negotiations came within the past month. Cronin said development of the area for industrial and commercial tenants is expected to be announced shortly.

The entire area is zoned for industrial purposes.

Attains National Recognition

Safety Officer William F. Tammany, a 25-year veteran of the Andover Police department has received national recognition in the Veterans of Foreign Wars J. Edgar Hoover Gold Medal Award program. Tammany was selected as one of ten Massachusetts finalists from among all branches of law enforcement within the Commonwealth, including the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the State Police.

Established in 1970 and instituted for the first time this year, the J. Edgar Hoover awards seek to publicly recognize and honor the most outstanding law enforcement officers throughout the United States, men who most typify the consummate devotion to duty and public service of the present Director of the F.B.I.

Patrolman Tammany was sponsored for the award by Andover Post 2128 V.F.W. in recognition of his conspicuous achievements as safety officer for the past 15 years and further for his work as a police artist which has brought him national prominence. The local officer's sketches and composite drawings have been instrumental in solving many serious felonies in the New England area and have resulted in his being named as police artist consultant to several municipal police forces in Eastern Massachusetts.

The lifelong Andover resident is probably best known however for his performance as town safety officer which has led to his being selected for the Andover Chamber of Commerce Outstanding Citizen Award in 1966 and being named Andover Town Employee of the Year in 1969. Officer Tammany is also past president of the Mass-

How To Save 24% On Canned Beans ... You Might Want To Spend The Difference On Your Steak!

There are three ways to buy canned beans at the CO-OP.

1. One good way is to buy a famous national brand. We stock it. The quality is tops. The price is 31 cents for a 15½ ounce can.

2. A better way is to buy CO-OP Red Label brand. Also top quality. The price? 25 cents for a 15½ ounce can.

Just what is this CO-OP label jazz? Glad you asked. The CO-OPs maintain their own Quality Assurance Lab in Albert Lea, Minnesota. Why? To test foods and other products by CONSUMER standards of excellence. Its rigid standards are our guarantee of top value - for after all, value is a blend of quality and price!

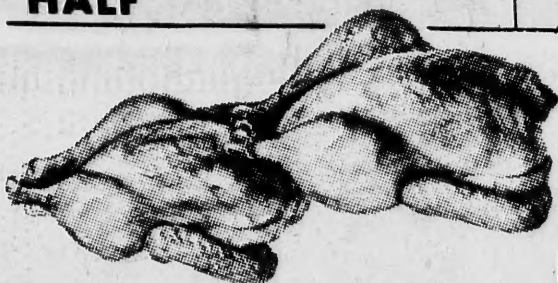

Our top grade carries a CO-OP Red Label - you can't beat it. CO-OP Red Label beans save you 6¢ a can. The national brand costs 24% more than CO-OP!

3. Our economy grade is identified by CO-OP's Green Label. Whenever available, this is an even better buy because the saving is even greater. The taste is great - only the appearance is less than perfect.

Firefighter Exam Set

Civil Service Director Mabel A. Campbell, has announced that the Massachusetts Division of Civil Service has scheduled an examination to establish eligible lists for firefighter. This examination will be held on Friday, Aug. 27.

Director Campbell wishes to make special note of legislation - Chapter 370 of the Acts of 1971 - which contains the following paragraph ... An applicant for firefighter shall have reached his nineteenth (19th) birthday on the date of the examination. Governor Francis W. Sargent issued an emergency declaration whereby the amendment became effective on June 18, 1971, the date of its filing with Secretary of State, John F. X. Davoren.

There is a dire need for young men between the ages of 19 and 35 who meet the educational, physical and mental requirements for the position of firefighter. Director Campbell continued, and an application that is filed today could lead one on his way to a rewarding career in fire fighting work.

Applications and examination announcements are available at the Division of Civil Service, Room 148, State House, Boston 02133 and anyone seeking information may write or telephone 727-2277.

O. E. Steinert Co., Lawrence, has been awarded the contract for renovation work at the East Junior High school.

The company submitted a proposal of $90,477 for the work.

The renovations are part of a bond issue approved at town meeting three years ago to bring the building up to date for continued school use and has included electrical, plumbing and other major repairs the past two summers.

Under the contract awarded by Town Manager J. Maynard Austin this week, the Lawrence firm will install partitions in the cafeteria area to allow use of the section for classroom space when not in use for food service.

Illness Halts Fact Finding

Appointment of another fact finder is awaited for continued work on a contract between the town and the police department.

Mrs. Anna Weinstock, appointed by the state board of conciliation and arbitration, to settle the dispute between the two parties, has been unable to continue in the meetings between the police and town negotiators.

She has been confined due to a broken hip and another person must be named by the state to resume discussions.

One session had been held between the negotiators in the dispute which has been going on for some months.

The police are seeking improved working conditions, holiday, sick day and vacation allowances in their contract.

Town Manager J. Maynard Austin said he was unable to say when a fact finder will be appointed and the sessions resumed.

CAR TALK

TIRES AND HOT WEATHER

Summer driving is tough on tires. Here are some ways to get maximum hot weather tire wear and safety.

Don't overload the car. Imprinted on the sidewalls of new tires are the maximum load and pressure they will safely carry.
Too heavy a load, with corresponding low pressure can lead to tire failure, especially on a long, high-speed trip.

Check tire pressure often.
Under-inflation can lead to increased wear and dangerous heat build-up. Test pressures when the tires are cool and NEVER bleed air out of hot tires.

Remove snow tires. Because of their heavy tread, heat build-up can be high and they will hospital is an exciting time, but it can also be a hectic time if things are not well organized beforehand. Small children will want to be included in the family circle, too, and should be.

LaLeche League mothers have many helpful hints to offer to help this be a special time for the family as a whole.

"Baby Arrives: The Family and the Breastfed Baby," is the July meeting topic. The Andover meeting will be held Wednesday, July 21 at the home of Mrs. James Hayes, 160 Chestnut St.

Any other aspect of breast-feeding is gladly discussed either at the meeting or over the telephone by contacting leaders Ann Anderson or Phyllis Hayes. Major problems become minor with the help of a friend who knows how to help.

The last meeting of this series,
"Nutrition and Weaning," will be held Wednesday, Aug. 18.

Fathers Topple Sons, 16-10

The Andover American Major Red Sox team held their annual Father and Son game recently as this year the dads toppled the sons 16-10.

The sons took an early 4-0 lead in the top of the first inning as Steve Wilkins doubled to left field, Omar Abboud singled to left, Dana Cohen doubled to right field driving in 2 runs and then Bob Cairns cracked a long homerun to left to account for 2 more runs.

The fathers came right back in the bottom of the first inning with 5 runs of their own to take a 5-4 lead. George Cairns started the dads off with a hard smash to left field good enough for a triple. Up stepped power hitter Gerry Cohen and lifted a long towering 300 foot homerun over the left center field fence. First baseman George Farrell kept things going with a bingle to center field as pitcher Bill Emmert stroked a double to right chasing in a run. Third baseman Tom Comparato kept the rally going with a double to right scoring the dads fourth run and Frank Monette blasted a double to left field for the final run of the inning.

The second inning proved to be the clincher for the dads as they outscored the sons 7-2. The sons started the inning off with a single from George O'Brien, a run-scoring double from Bill Emmert, Jr., Steve Wilkin's second double of the game and singles by Omar Abboud, John O'Brien and Bob Cairns. The big threat ended with a 1-6-3 double-play by the dads as pitcher Bill Emmert, Sr. fielded a ground ball and threw to shortstop Frank Monette covering second base who fired to first baseman George Farrell. The dads then sewed up the game as George (Flash-foot) Cairns reached on an error, Gerry (Boomer) Cohen unleashed his second homerun of the game, this one carrying about 300 feet to center field, George (Stretch) Farrell hit a single, Bill (Knuckleball) Emmert doubled, Tom (Legs) Comparato doubled, Frank (Fleet-foot) Monette smashed a line drive homerun to centerfield, Donna (A-go-go) Cohen singled, Linda (Wide-turn) Cairns singled and Gary (Killer) Cohen singled.

The final inning was started off by the sons' Glenn Cairns single to the infield and followed by brother Gary Cairns infield bingle and a towering drive over a drawn in infield by Jonathan Cohen as Bobby Cairns belted a long triple. For the dads Grace Emmert hammered a single, and 6 year-old Andy Emmert smashed a too-hot-to-handle liner to third as Bill Emmert, Sr. lined a single to left and Frank Monette tripled to left.

Serving as cheerleaders for the three inning marathon were Arlene Cairns, Lorraine Farrell and Annette Cohen.

THE MORTGAGE

The modern home mortgage has come a long way since the 1920s. Mortgage practices were so unsound at the time of the stock market crash that in 1934 the Federal Housing Administration was set up to revise the existing mortgage situation to help put the housing industry back on its feet.

Previous to this action, real estate was financed chiefly through the old-fashioned "straight", "standing", or "fixed" mortgage. The home buyer made a down payment of as much as half of the purchase price and received a short-term loan usually requiring the balance to be paid off in three to five years.

The FHA developed the amortized mortgage, which provides for fixed monthly payments over a long-term period, often 30 years.

The amortized mortgage, now obtained through a variety of sources has made home ownership easier.

Mysterious Fires Probed

Police and fire officials are investigating the mysterious fires in three stolen cars in the Ballardvale area.

Monday afternoon, Fire Chief Henry I. Hilton and State Lt. Leo E. Walsh were investigating the area when they spotted two men pushing a blue Corvette in the area. A short time later the car was reported on fire and the two men in a red convertible had left the scene.

The car was chased over Route 92 to a wooded area in Wilmington by Patrolman Richard Enos where the men fled on foot.

Hearings On Academy Requests

Abbot and Phillips Academies must apply for a hearing on their request for a lodging house license.

Abbot had requested permission of the selectmen for such a license this week, but the board decided that in view of action taken in regard to Bryant - McIntosh Junior College in Shawsheen, a public hearing would be necessary.

The Bryant - McIntosh matter resulted in a hearing before the board on the Lawrence School's request to use the former Parker Manor for dormitory and classroom space.

Abbot Academy had requested conversion of the Flagg house, the former residence of Burton Flagg on School street, for student and faculty residence use. The request had the approval of the building inspector.

The board felt that since it had set a precedent in the junior college issue, it must follow through on this request.

Abbot authorities felt a delay would harm its construction schedule with additional students anticipated in the fall.

Despite this, however, the board agreed to set a hearing for its next meeting, July 28.

A request by Phillips Academy to also acquire a lodging house license was set down for a hearing on the same evening.

The Waves of the U.S. Navy were formed July 30, 1942.

appealed to the selectmen to retain Carmel Woods in its natural state. Alan Griffin, a leader of Boy Scouts Troop 72 told the board that the area is used extensively by Scout and youth groups and infringement of the property by the housing authority would lead to damaging property which could never be regained.

Others also indicated that the land should remain in conservation commission hands.

James Buss, Carmel road, an abutter of the property, spoke of the cost of installation of sufficient water and sewer lines to the area.

The selectmen generally agreed that the construction of additional units for senior citizens was good, but that Carmel Woods was not the site.

Their action in disapproving the site only gives an official disapproval.

Should the Housing Authority wish to pursue the matter, they could continue their efforts by placing the matter before town meeting and taking the steps suggested by town counsel.

The selectmen indicated a willingness to assist the housing authority in seeking an alternate site.

Injured In Accident

Two men were injured in a motorcycle accident on Wildwood Road, Monday night.

John C. Burns, 18, 56 Wildwood Road, was listed in good condition with skull injuries at Lawrence General hospital Wednesday after the motorcycle on which he was riding crashed at Wildwood and Chatham Roads.

James Gardner, 17, 54 Gray Road, also a passenger on the motorcycle, was listed in good condition at the hospital.

The two youths were taken to the hospital in the North Reading ambulance, the Andover ambulance having been on another emergency call at the time of the accident.

Patrolman Richard Aumais, off duty at the time and Dr. William O'Reilly administered first aid to the youths at the scene.

Closing Program For Bible School

A large staff of teachers and teen helpers under the direction of Mrs. Manuel Souza, director, has conducted the school. Refreshments have been served each day under the direction of Mrs. Love Edgerly consisting of punch and cookies provided by several ladies of the church.

Parents, friends and the general public will have an opportunity to see and hear what has been done by attending the closing program on Friday evening. Refreshments will be served downstairs following the program and an exhibit of crafts will be shown.

The presentation of the J. Edgar Hoover award and accompanying citation was made by Commander John C. Doherty, of Andover Post 2128, who stated that the post was especially proud of Officer Tammany's honor in view of the high caliber of the many nominees from throughout the state. Doherty said that the post members, currently celebrating their fortieth anniversary, shared Police Chief Nicoll's sentiments that the award was a credit both to William Tammany and the Andover police force.

Memorial Hall Library

Do you ever feel powerless to change the world or even circumstances that are bothersome daily? Memorial Hall Library is providing a chance to let off steam concerning our services to you. Would you like to see changes or modifications in library procedures? Here is one example which took place just this week. One patron asked, "Why can't foreign language records go out for more than a week?" Because of this query, which was placed in the new suggestion box, the policy has been changed to allow foreign language records to circulate for three weeks.

The library staff cannot guarantee every wrong will be righted, but would like the opportunity to find out what you think, and if possible, incorporate your ideas in order to give better service to all.

Toys

A unique display of hand-carved toys from Russia is currently on display in the Children's Room. On loan from Pedro Chinsky, a Vernon book dealer, the collection includes nesting dolls, papier-mache bowls, and intricately designed animal groups that perform stunts when activated by wooden slides, the push of a finger, or the rotation of a ball on a string. Interestingly, the collection shows the dominance of the bear figure in Russian folklore and legend; many of the toys demonstrate the strength and agility of that animal. Also on display are a sampling of the children's books written in Russian that are part of the children's room collection.

Notes

The children's room Classical music program, Notes on Notes, began last Friday with an exciting hour devoted to the life and works of Mozart. Under the direction of Mrs. Lotte Bertheim of Methuen, the group will listen to parts of the opera "The Magic Flute" this week, and will also talk about the musical instruments that compose an orchestra. Children of all ages are invited to attend Notes on Notes at 10 a.m. Fridays.

Crafts

The summer Crafts Class, conducted by Mrs. Frances McCormick of the Andover Artists' Guild, began Tuesday with an excursion into the world of paper construction. Children who participate in the classes have been notified of the day on which they are to attend, but any questions regarding their placement may be answered in the Children's Room. The program is run for separate groups on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays.

result in increased traffic, not only of employees, but of service vehicles.

Construction of a road would be costly, particularly if the road was to be built to connect with existing roads leading to Route 93. It would require spanning railroad tracks and the Shawsheen River, the manager said.

Streets in the Pallardvale and Lowell Junction areas are not built to handle heavy traffic that can be expected, the manager pointed out, indicating that it would appear that most traffic from the industrial area would be going in a northerly direction, or to the Vale and junction areas.

He felt the time to realistically approach the problem was now, working with the planning board and industrial committee.

Selectman Sidney P. White agreed and pointed out that the logical solution to the problem is a direct access road to Route 93 which borders the industrial land.

He felt need of a study now, with approaches to state and federal authorities for assistance in construction of an access road.

There was an estimate that bringing traffic out to Dascomb road near the Route 93 ramps, would cost in the vicinity of $1,000,000.

With the continued development adoptions on land acquisition sure to be running out through continued development, time appears to be of the essence, the selectmen and manager felt.

The board approved a motion by White to have a committee appointed and to seek assistance of Tewksbury and Wilmington officials in seeking a direct access to Route 93.

The committee is expected to work with the planning board and consultants in the matter.

Ten years ago, during the construction phase of Route 93, local industrial commission members sought state and federal assistance in having an access road built in the area.

The request was rejected at the time, basically on the premise there was no industry or facilities for such in the area. Recent development and installation of utility lines and road improvements, indicate the feasibility of continued industrial development of the area.

Flowers . . .

... can make an important contribution to the traditional funeral service. Not only do they denote respect for the deceased, but flowers can be sort of a personal messenger of sympathy and understanding to survivors. Their presence tells the immediate family that their friends are thinking of them and sharing their sorrow during their bereavement.

While many customs and fashions have undergone changes over the years, the use of flowers at funerals has endured. Evidence of floral tributes have been found in excavated tombs dating as far back as ancient Egypt.

Police Officers Commended

Commendations were issued to four police officers this week by the selectmen.

John Bernhardt was commended for his efforts in attempting an underwater rescue on June 24. Patrolman Russell Perthel, Lloyd Pelben and John Hartman were commended for their work in apprehending thieves entering the Cole Hardware Co. on the same evening.

Patrolman Bernhardt was dispatched to a pond near the Rolling Green golf course on the night of June 21, after a report to the station of a car having gone in there.

The car was completely submerged according to the report of Sgt. Robert Parker and Chief David L. Nicoll.

Patrolman Bernhardt, upon being informed that a woman was driving the vehicle, entered the water several times in an effort to rescue the woman, if still in the car. After several attempts it was determined the woman had escaped.

Sgt. Parker, in his report, said that the prompt and diligent action would have resulted in the possible saving of the woman's life, had she not been able to get out.

Patrolman Perthel, Pelben and Hartman were detailed to the Cole Hardware store on Main street in the same evening and apprehended two men who were attempting entrance into the building through a roof transom.

Their work was considered exemplary and in the finest traditions of police service according to Chief Nicoll. Town Manager Austin suggested the public commendation and the board agreed.

In other action with regard to the police department, the board approved the manager's appointment of Philip E. Froberg, 24 Marland St., as a permanent patrolman.

Coolidge Place Anniversary

The historic Stevens-Coolidge Place on Andover St. celebrates its ninth year in 1971 as a museum of the decorative arts and an example of rural life in early 20th century America.

The gardens, a highlight of the property, are bright with color. Emerald green lawns form a backdrop for delicate French lilac, bright red peonies, pink roses and geraniums. Huge willows spread their weeping branches by the greenhouse and a magnificent silver maple catches the sunlight on its soft green leaves.

Part of an original grant from the Massachusetts Bay Colony to John Stevens in 1945, the Stevens-Coolidge Place celebrates a proud tradition of eight generations of family ownership.

Today it combines the rural charm of a New England farm with the formality and comfort of modern country living. On its 89 acres, sweeping green lawns blend into rich pasture land. Flowering dogwood shade a sun-warmed garden of fuchsia, agapanthus and climbing roses enclosed with granite walls. Colorful perennials blend gaily with thyme, marjoram and other herbs. And opposite the kitchen garden, a serpentine wall shelters an exquisite display of ornamental parterre while tall Alberta spruce stand like sentries at its gates. Mixed hardwoods - sugar maples, shag bark hickory, and oak - many planted as much as 150 years ago, fringe the field areas which total some 40 acres. A portion of the land is still farmed.

"The Home Place," or main house, is a handsome brick structure, restored in Colonial Revival style, an elegant example of the decorative arts of the first quarter of the twentieth century. The original portion of the house was constructed around 1800. In the 1820s and 1830s the structure served as a Tavern, welcoming travellers from all parts of Essex County. Inside, "The Home Place" is filled with fine examples of china, Waterford crystal and American antiques.

The property was the home of the Honorable and Mrs. John G. Coolidge. Mrs. Coolidge, the former Helen S. Stevens, lived in "The Home Place" until 1962. Mr. Coolidge, born in 1863, was an author and a diplomat who served his country with distinction for many years in China, as Secretary of the U.S. Embassy in Mexico and as U.S. Minister to Nicaragua.

Gardens will be open through Oct. 12 without charge. Closed on Monday. Hours are 2 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. House open throughout the year on Sunday only and hours are 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. House may be opened by appointment Monday through Saturday. # Babe Ruth Club Lifts Record

By Rick Harrison

The Andover Babe Ruth baseball team continued to close in on a post-season playoff berth last week, winning two of three games to lift its overall record to 8-7.

The local club whipped defending champ Methuen 5-2 behind the solid five-hit hurling of 13-year-old lefthander Glenn Verrette. They also put on their top offensive show of the year, romping to a 12-1 victory over Prospect Hill as Steve Fabiani fired a three-hitter.

The loss was a tough 7-6 decision to league-leading North Andover (13-1). Andover led for most of the way and out-hit North Andover 12-5 in the contest. But the victors scored three unearned runs in the bottom of the sixth inning to erase a 6-4 Andover lead. It was Andover's fifth one-run setback.

With two weeks remaining in the regular season, Andover stands just two games behind second-place Methuen and one game behind third place South Lawrence East.

The locals were slated to play three more crucial games this week, with all three coming after TOWNSMAN presstime.

Andover hosted winless South Lawrence West on Tuesday night, and faced South Lawrence East at home last night. Tonight, Manager George Lefebvre's nine will clash with nemesis Tower Hill.

Prior to this week's action, Andover had been a rough team to beat at home. They were 6-1 at the Playstead and 2-6 "on the road." Five of their final six games are listed for the home field, which could prove to be a big advantage here in the late going.

Andover 5, Methuen 2 -- Southpaw Glenn Verrette upped his perfect pitching record to 2-0, holding highly-regarded Methuen scoreless for five innings before allowing two harmless runs in the sixth stanza.

In addition to scattering the five hits, Glenn struck out six and walked only three. Methuen's usually hard-hitting club had trouble solving Glenn's lefty serves, as they managed four singles and only one extra-base hit. Glenn retired eight straight batters over one stretch.

Andover hitters banged out only four safeties against loser Mike Solomon, but the victors concentrated all of their offensive thrust in a five-run third inning.

Andover collected just two hits in the big frame, but several walks and two Methuen errors helped the cause.

The big blow, which drove home what proved to be the winning runs, was a long bases-loaded, three-run double to leftfield by Steve Fabiani. The two-out blast brought home Bob Burrow, Keith Verrette and Jeff Towne.

The other safety for the locals in that inning was an infield single to third base by Burrow.

Glenn Verrette helped his own cause with a fine bunt that squeezed home Billy O'Reilly. O'Reilly had led the inning with a walk, and advanced to third on a balk and a wild pitch.

The second Andover tally came on a bases-loaded walk to slugging Jeff Towne, and this set the stage for Fabiani's gigantic two-bagger.

Methuen, losing its first game in three years to Andover, finally hit the scoreboard in the sixth. Bob Becotte walked, Fred Simm singled and then John Duerr rescued both runners with a two-out double.

Andover jammed the bases again in the bottom of the sixth on a walk to Glenn Verrette, and back-to-back singles by Bob Burrow and Keith Verrette. However, Towne grounded out sharply to first baseman Jeff Weinhold to kill the threat.

Andover 12, Prospect Hill 1 -- Steve Fabiani hurled his fifth straight complete game for Andover, and in the process boosted his record to 4-1. The Prospect Hill run was unearned, as Steve lowered his classy E.R.A. to a miniscule 0.85.

Fabiani walked four and whiffed four. One of the losers' hits was of the infield variety, and a second dropped between two out-fielders who played "Alphonse and Gaston."

Andover put the game away with three runs in the first and six more in the second inning.

The big blow in the opening frame was a two-run single by Jeff Towne, who now carries a better than .400 batting average.

Bob Burrow, who lashed four consecutive singles in a perfect 4-for-4 night at the plate, highlighted the second stanza outburst with a two-run single.

Other RBI safeties in that inning went to Bob MacMackin, Steve Fabiani and Dave Mosher.

The locals jumped the spread to 11-0 in the fourth, scoring two runs on an RBI single by Burrow and an infield grounder by Chuck Parisi.

The rivals traded runs in the fifth inning. The losers' runcame when they loaded the bases with two out, and then Jack Clark raced home on a throwing error.

Dave Mosher and Bob Driscoll supported Burrow's four-hit night with a pair of singles apiece. Towne, MacMackin and Fabiani all contributed one bingle.

Leadoff batter Glenn Verrette and Burrow scored three runs each, while "Bullet Bob" Driscoll flashed across the plate twice.

North Andover 7, Andover 6 -- Poor fielding cost Andover this game at Grogan's Field in North Andover.

The locals jumped off to a quick 2-0 lead in the top of the first on a single by Keith Verrette and a vicious line-drive homerun to rightfield by Jeff Towne.

Towne was later to add a run-scoring single and a long triple in a 3-for-4 night. He drove in four runs and scored one. Keith Verrette also had a 3-for-4 output, slamming a triple and another single later in the contest. He scored three times.

Bob Purrow added a pair of hits for the losers, while solo safeties were cracked by Glenn Verrette, Steve Fabiani, Dave Mosher and Chuck Parisi. Parisi's hit also brought home a run.

After Andover leapt out to its 2-0 lead, North Andover rallied to take a 3-2 edge in the bottom of the first. Two more Andover runs in the third made it 4-3, and Andover led 5-4 after the rivals traded tallies in the fifth.

The locals made it 6-4 in the top of the sixth on Parisi's hit, but the fielding lapses in the last of the sixth as the league-leaders chalked up three unearned markers.

Andover stirred around in the seventh-and-final inning, when back-to-back singles by Burrow and Keith Verrette put two runners aboard with no one out.

Lefty Rick Redman came on to pitch, and he received a quick piece of luck when Burrow was cut down at third trying to advance a base on a wild pitch.

Redman then fanned Jeff Towne and Bob Driscoll to end the game on a disastrous note for Andover.

Glenn Verrette turned in the fielding play of the season for Andover early in the game. With Jim Davis on first base, Redman stroked a drive down the right-field line.

Verrette, playing in medium-deep rightfield, raced in and toward the foul line to make a diving one-hand catch of the ball just before it touched the ground. Glenn then straightened up and alertly threw to Bob Driscoll at first base, doubling up the surprised Davis.

A series of two meetings to discuss the latest techniques of freezing and canning foods will be presented by Mrs. Nancy C. Stutzman, Extension Home Economist and Mrs. Evelyn Brown, County 4-H Club Program Assistant, Middlesex County Extension Service. The meetings will be held at the Public Library in North Reading. Each two hour session is a completed class.

Gardens and farms will soon be yielding their harvest and it is a wise homemaker who has the know-how to take advantage of this harvest of fruits and vegetables for the satisfaction and good nutrition of her family throughout the year.

The meetings will include the selection of foods to be frozen and canned, the packaging materials and the storage of the preserved product. The information will be valuable to those using a small freezer compartment in the refrigerator as well as to home freezer owners. The canning information will cover jams, jellies and pickles as well as fruits and vegetables.

All homemakers are invited to attend these timely meetings.

Statistics suggest it's safer to ride in a truck than in a car. In 1970, over 54,000 passenger cars were involved in fatal accidents compared to 12,400 commercial vehicles.

Employment Survey Due

The Bureau of the Census will conduct a survey of employment and unemployment in this area during the week of July 19, James W. Turbitt, Director of the Bureau's regional office in Poston announced today.

This survey is conducted monthly by the Bureau for the U.S. Department of Labor in a scientifically designed sample of households throughout the entire United States. The employment and unemployment statistics which are based on the results of this survey are used to provide a continuing measure of the economic health of the Nation.

For example, in May the survey indicated that there were 84.1 million men and women in the civilian labor force; 6.2 percent were out of work as compared with 6.1 percent of the 83.8 million persons in the April labor force. The figures are adjusted for seasonal changes.

Facts supplied by individuals participating in the survey are kept strictly confidential by law, and the results are used only to compile statistical totals.

Native Beans On Market

If you're looking for something different to do this summer, there's a just-published listing of the some 140 agricultural and country fairs in Massachusetts this season, the Mass. Dept. of Agriculture announces. The colorful folder, explaining the different types of fairs and the events that comprise them, is free upon request.

A note to MDA, Div. of Fairs, 100 Cambridge St., Boston, 02202, will bring your copy by return mail. Ask for "The Fabulous Fairs of Massachusetts."

Many different types of fresh native beans are now flooding local markets and roadside stands, with green beans and wax (butter) beans taking preference. You can judge good fresh beans by their smooth skin, absence of dark spots, and firmness. The ends should snap easily. A limp bean is not fresh. Yellow summer squash and green Zucchini squash are appearing this week in reasonable quantities.

The first apple of the year, a small green apple called Lodi is beginning to come from native orchards. It's excellent for pies and applesauce, though you may have to add some extra sugar to overcome the tartness.

The native blueberry season is also coming in. Many roadside and farm stands, especially in southeastern Massachusetts, are offering flavorful, juicy blueberries at reasonable prices. Some growers let you pick your own.

Native cabbage is coming into plentiful harvest, and lettuce of all varieties is available in quantity. Prices are economical, quality is excellent. Broccoli is appearing, but so far in light supply.

The native corn crop is still a couple of weeks away. Most of it is already in tassels, and will be offered in small quantities shortly, but the bulk of the first harvest won't appear until late July.

EXPLORATION

In the Spring of 1972, the U.S. space agency will launch the first Earth Resources Technology Satellite. With photographic equipment and other sensing devices it is expected to find minerals, spot diseased crops while they still look healthy, pinpoint wildlife populations, migrations and overgrazing, analyze rocks and soils, and hidden sources of pollution will be detected, according to the Massachusetts Audubon Society.

Your child — a VIP

Your young child is a Very Important Person . . . at one of the most significant periods in his or her life.

These are important years for the development of the personalities of children between the ages of two and one-half and six. This is when much of the child's intellect is shaped, the time when much of what the child will be in later life is molded.

The development of the personality and intellect of young children is the purpose of Living and Learning Schools. Its curriculum represents a program of total child development and education. It includes social and emotional development and offers programs in language and communication, science, mathematics, art, drama, music and literature. Health education, safety and nutrition are also important parts of the child development program.

The Living and Learning School is now enrolling for the September program in a building especially designed as a child development center.

Now is the time for you to recognize your young child as a V.I.P. — at a Very Important Period in life.

Editorial Comment

The Dump

The sanitary landfill operation (which shall be referred to henceforth in this commentary as the dump) has been in excellent condition off and on this year.

Its appearance has been exemplary, under difficult conditions.

Department of public works officials have concentrated efforts at meeting state requirements, which basically require the burying of refuse deposited in the dump on a daily basis.

Their efforts are continuing, with drainage work planned to prevent seepage finding its way into the Fish Brook or Haggetts Pond watershed area.

A dump by its very nature can be unsightly and messy, but DPW workmen have been industrious in their efforts to keep the area neat and clean.

Their attempts to maintain almost perfect conditions at the dump, however, have been hampered by the inability of the bulldozer to be available at all times.

The machine, necessary for proper operation of a sanitary landfill, has broken down on occasions, and is again in the repair shop this week.

Town meeting rejected purchase of a new bulldozer for the dump this year.

Rejection followed an impassioned plea for economy and see if the machine would last out another year.

This may yet prove to be penny wise and pound foolish.

The guarantee on the present dozer runs out this month. It has faced and met its heavy duty responsibilities throughout the guarantee period, but is obviously weakening rapidly.

With a no-burning ban now in effect, there will be an increased burden placed on the dump to accommodate the disposal of refuse by the residents of the community.

Minus efficient machinery to accomplish the task, the town could be in real trouble.

The present dump site is rapidly reaching its optimum efficiency.

A new site will be needed soon and is expected to be acted upon at the 1972 town meeting.

Meanwhile, if the town is to maintain the present dump and meet state requirements, the proper tools are necessary.

The need for a new dozer should be of prime importance when the October town meeting convenes.

It appears to be a must. Postponing the inevitable has already proven costly in both money and time lost in maintaining the dump properly.

Vandalism

At the risk of being repetitious, we must comment again on the heavy amount of vandalism taking place in the community.

During the past week, the rate of vandalism has increased to the point of jeopardizing safety.

The local chapter of the American Red Cross has felt it necessary, after conferring with town officials, to remove safety stations maintained along points on the Shawsheen River.

Police have been investigating the vandalism taking place in the Pumps pond area, including damage to boats used for patrolling the water recreation area, as well as being on hand for emergency use.

This type of activity must cease.

One might suppose that the youthful exertion in destroying the life preserver stations is based on the premise they are never used.

But this type of thinking is sheer foolishness. There is always the possibility that emergency devices will be needed. They are placed almost in the hope of never being used.

The same is true of the boats and properties at Pumps. The facilities there are for pleasure and for emergency purposes, the latter in the hope that such equipment will not, of necessity, be utilized.

That youths have made such items an object of their vandalistic activities is appalling, since it not only endangers life, but also, in some cases, leads to needless expense.

Certainly there is more to do in the summer here in Andover, rather than resorting to destruction of property.

Possibly efforts toward creativity, rather than destruction, would better serve the town and the young people alike.

Planning

A special committee will be named to study the need and means of providing an access road for the Lowell Junction Industrial Park.

This was the decision of the selectmen this week.

The time seems appropriate for such a study.

The industrial area, opened by the Gillette Co., and broadened since by other industrial firms, offers tremendous potential for the town's industrial base.

Its location lends itself properly to further industrial and commercial expansion.

Danger here, however, is the encroachment on residential properties in the area by traffic particularly.

Access to Route 93 seems advisable, more today, than when the town's industrial development committee sought such provisions during initial construction of the expressway ten years ago.

As time goes on, the land for such access road may rapidly disappear. Costs will also rise.

Traffic to and from the industrial area, now must pass through residential sections of Ballardvale and Lowell Junction in some cases. The roads and general area are not really conducive to bearing such traffic.

Road improvements over existing thoroughfares would not only be prohibitively costly, but damaging to the residential aspects of abutting property.

With solid industrial tenants located there and the prospects for continued development good, it would be safe to assume that state and federal authorities would be of assistance in retaining industry and showing a welcome mat approach to the problem.

We would hope that some definitive action with regard to access roads to Route 93 would be forthcoming in an economical as well as rapid manner.

Off The Top

Of The Desk

Pumps pond is supposed to be a place for recreation, but sometimes it doesn't seem so, as non-thinking people discard items into the water area leading to injuries.

Prominent among some of the discarded refuse are bottles and cans.

The glass, which sometimes breaks, along with the cans, leads to severe cuts on the feet of young and old alike.

Proper receptacles are provided for the disposal of such items. Use of them would prevent injuries and keep the general area clean and presentable.

A study by the Massachusetts Department of Tourism indicates that Essex County ranks second in the number of tourist attractions in the state, Greater Boston, of course, being first.

The same study indicates there is a lack of facilities for visitors, most all being rented by July 1, the study group states.

The Essex County Tourist Council is planning to present plans for expansion of the opportunities offered by the county in the fall, according to the report.

In western cities, and country areas, where modern electronics have allowed for underground or other means of transmission, power companies have been requested to leave the poles standing.

Reason: Birds are using the crossbars for nesting in the absence of sufficient trees in the area.

What Our Readers Say

To the Editor of the TOWNSMAN:

I received a postcard from the Town of Andover and I object. Rather than informing me that as a dog owner I am required to license my dog, it says that my name appears on a list of dog owners who do not have their dog licensed.

Then, rather than asking me to comply with the law, it informs me that "the Dog Officer has received his warrant to kill or cause to be killed" my dog.

Then it warns me about "legal action" should I not "attend to this matter at once."

So today I rushed down to the Town Clerk's office but alas -- my spayed female dog cannot be registered today. We must first get documented proof of the fact that she's sterilized.

I certainly hope the Dog Officer doesn't hear of this before we can get an appointment at the vet.

Pig brother is surely watching and keeping records -- and I suspect, passing them on.

DON'T BE AFRAID

Wine consumption is on the increase in America. It has doubled in the past ten years. However so many Americans have been discouraged from enjoying wine because they mistakenly believe you must know a great deal about wine and its presentation even before you begin. This is a myth.

In Europe there is no fuss about drinking wine just as there is no fuss here about drinking coffee. Actually, there is a greater variety of the world's best wines to be found in any American city than in Paris, London or Rome. Any good American wine shop will display more different French wines than you could find in Bordeaux.

The only equipment needed to drink wine is a corkscrew and a glass. Two glasses would be better, as wine always tastes better when shared. So why not shed the mystique and enjoy the great pleasure of dining with wine.

You are invited to send in any questions on the subject of wine or spirits and I'll be happy to answer them personally or in print. Our way of saying "Thank you" is by always offering you the finest quality of wines and spirits and the very best values and service at DEN ROCK LIQUOR MART, No. Andover Mall (Route 114). ## Camp Y-Wood Active Camp Y-Wood, the Greater Lawrence YWCA day camp for girls began its fourteenth season on June 28. Under the direction of Mrs. Albert Retelle, the camp welcomed 70 girls the first day.

Much activity marked the first week with the crafts' department under counselors Mrs. Robin Moseley, Mayflower Drive, and Susan Lynch, Reservation Road, helping the girls to make reed baskets, mats and coasters. Many of the mats incorporated hay from Y-Wood's fields.

The nature classes with Miss Mona Manzi, a North Andover teacher, explored the many wild-flowers found on the 19-acre site which has fields, groves and wetlands. The girls planted the camp garden with vegetables and flowers. Birds have been of special interest when a pair of bluebirds was discovered inspecting an apple tree right in the heart of camp for a possible nest site. The campers had never seen these rare birds that were nearly lost from pesticides. A hawk, pheasant family, robin and song sparrow nests have been discovered.

Since the fields of the camp were hayed this week, the campers could observe the processes that go into making winter food for horses and cows.

The girls helped to gather the extra bits of hay for the camp pony.

Out-door cookery has been a popular activity. Junior counselor Ellen Gravalles, Sunset Rock Road, helped prepare spaghetti and sausage, subs and pudding on the open fire.

The waterfront directed by Claire Kurzbach and Nancy Jukins, YWCA Pool Instructors, have given each girl a daily lesson in Y and Red Cross Swimming. Other instructors are Carol Christopher, Birch Road, and Mary Hoskings of North Andover. Because of the hot weather, water sports, Red Cross Lifesaving and Canoeing proved popular activities for the older campers.

A family evening will be held July 8 showing the camp in action. Prospective camper families are invited to attend.

A few places remain for the other three periods. Information is available from the YWCA desk.

Campers attending from Andover are: Linda Fitzgerald, Carolyn Mikonis, Rebecca Nader, Colleen O'Brien, Lori Pinkney, Cynthia Retelle, Diane Suter, Stephanie Sohigian, Kelly Salyers and Carolee Whitney.

Tripoli Does The Baking For You

Tripoli Bakery, well known in this area for its delicious bread, rolls and pizza, also makes all the luscious bakery treats shown above. Keep Tripoli Bakery, 106 Common Street, Lawrence, in mind for your next neighborhood Coffee, special! Tea or Bridge party. Tripoli makes a complete line of Italian and French cookies and pastries, all types of doughnuts, layer cakes, cupcakes, turn-overs, pastry squares, muffins and an excellent assortment of pies. They always have birthday cakes on hand, available in three different sizes and suitably decorated, or you may call in for special orders. The experienced bakers at Tripoli make all their own bread right on the premises, so there is hot bread for sale at all times and it is still made the old fashioned way, with no shortcuts or substitutes for quality. Warm, crusty Italian bread is baked fresh every hour. In addition to their famous long Italian loaves in two sizes, Tripoli features the round Italian loaf and regular bread, plus a tremendous variety of rolls. They have submarine rolls; Italian hard crust rolls; soft crust rolls; hamburger, twisted lobster, dinner and finger rolls. You may stop in and pick up a dozen or two, or for larger amounts for parties, meetings, call and place your order. Rolls will be sliced for you, if you wish. September. You may enjoy their famous pizza, however, at Tripoli's Pizza Stand at Salisbury Beach, open 7 days a week during the summer, and weekends in the winter. Tripoli Bakery is a family business, established in Lawrence in 1921. A few years ago, in order to meet the demands of its many customers, a new addition was built and the facility completely modernized, including the installation of a large parking lot. Tripoli is open daily from 6 A.M. till 9 P.M. for your convenience. Get acquainted with Tripoli Bakery; your children are already familiar with their fine products, as Tripoli makes all the rolls and pizza for the Andover Schools. Tripoli's Pizza Shop at the Lawrence store is closed for the summer months, but will reopen in

Friendship Conquers A Language

INTERNATIONAL FRIENDSHIP. Beth Black of Sweetbriar Lane is shown with Maria Francesco Sola, of Argentina, in her native Gaucho outfit. The Argentine Girl Scout is visiting with Miss Black this week as part of an International Opportunity program of the Girl Scouts. The Andover and Argentine girls met when Beth visited the South American country with the Girl Scouts earlier this year.

(A TOWNSMAN News Feature)

A perfect example of the hand of friendship stretching across the seas is happening in Andover this week.

Maria Francisca Sola, a Girl Guide from Argentina, is spending ten days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Duncan Black, 7 Sweetbriar Lane. Maria is here to attend an International Opportunity with the Girls Scouts in Vermont, but her first stop is Massachusetts and the Merrimack River Girl Scout Council so she can get to know different parts of the U.S.

Here, Peth Black, a Senior Girl Scout of Troop 39, tells of how the exchange came about: "When I attended the International Encampment in Argentina this past January, I met girls from all over South America. Together we shared experiences, songs, games, cultures and ideas. It was a wonderful learning experience and I wanted to share it with the Girl Scouts and friends in Greater Lawrence. Others have heard about some of the customs in Argentina through slide shows to Girl Scout troops, school Spanish classes and various women's groups since I returned.

Then, in late March, we heard about some Argentina Girl Guides going to an event in Vermont who were to have a home-stay first. My family immediately responded to the idea of hosting a girl and I was eager to return the hospitality shown to me. We soon received news that Maria Sola from the province of Salta, Argentina would visit our home from kidnapped Maria and toured Boston, equipped with a notebook to draw pictures to explain things and a Spanish-English dictionary! They saw some of the important things in our state's capital such as the Prudential, parts of the Freedom Trail and the famous Swan Boats.

Wednesday and Thursday, Pancha came to Camp Merry meeting on Pomp's Pond, where I am a staff member, and taught some easy Spanish songs, a dinner grace, and a folk dance to the campers. It was obvious that camping and Scouting know no barriers. The Scouts taught Pancha some games and she assisted us with our cook-out.

"Hand gestures and laughter took the place of words but the common bond of Girl Scouting led the way to friendship and understanding.

"One evening, Sue Lampe invited Pancha, Melissa Sherman, Mary-Lou Caffrey and I over for a spaghetti supper. We tackled such topics as Kennedy, the Russians, the moon shot and cute boys, in three languages! (Melissa insisted that French was similar to Spanish!)

"Friday evening, Michael Yeates and Joe Regan decided to test their Spanish and bowling skill. So, after a dip in the Staid's pool, a group of us tried our hand at bowling. It seems it's an Argentine sport also and Pancha was good competition. The beach beckoned on Saturday and our visitor saw the ocean for the very first time! We built a bonfire on Plum Island and toasted marshmallows. Have you ever tried to explain what marshmallows are to someone who has never seen them? What a night!

"Having Pancha around is like living in another country for a few days and we're all enjoying the experience! Suddenly everyone wishes they knew Spanish. Actually, it's better they don't - Pancha has picked up a great deal of English already. By the time she leaves the states in mid-August, English will indeed be her second language.

"It will be a sad day on the fifteenth when our Argentine sister Scout is on her way to her Vermont adventure but the mutual exchange between us and our native countries will never be forgotten. "Peace." Beth Black July 4 - 15.

"Advance information on our guest told us that Maria had attended the same encampment I had. There were over 200 girls at the encampment and since the six Americans were separated, we had to speak Spanish all the time. As a result, we only got to know the 30 or so girls in our individual clans. I did not recognize her name as one of my clan; there are so many Marias! The forms said she knew no English, so I knew my Spanish might get a workout.

"The Fourth of July was awaited with extra excitement this year. At 12:30 we went into Logan International Airport to meet our visitor. I spotted the Argentina Girl Guide uniform as she descended from the plane. Then we both screamed as we recognized each other! Pancha, the nickname I knew her by, lived about four tents down from me in Argentina!

"Pancha has been here for a week or so now and we've tried to show her some of the aspects of American life. All my friends are helping out, struggling with broken Spanish and laughing over the things we've done.

"Sunday evening we visited Mrs. Dorothy Goclowksi, my Spanish teacher, and then went up town for the fireworks. On Monday, Tom Hannigan and I showed her some of the historical and interesting sites around Andover such as the America house, Phillips Academy, and our modern Bancroft school and playground. That night we saw the circus at Merrimack College. Tuesday, Karen and Mary Staid

Vacation Strike Ups Pay

Workers at Western Electric Company -- hundreds in Andover -- will receive an average wage increase of two percent.

The pay hike is the result of a strike by the International Union of Electrical Workers of America, which was nation-wide.

Locally, employees of Western Electric in Andover and its surrounding area, are members which joined the strike July 14 and ended July 15. All of this period, a majority of the workers received their annual two week pay. Out of approximately 200 employees at the Merrimack Works of Western Electric, about 200 were for jobs.
